CSCI E-83 is a limited enrollment course. You must attend all class meetings (or participate online) or risk losing your space. For more information important to students registered in a limited enrollment course, please see <http://www.extension.harvard.edu/tuition-enrollment/course-registration/limited-enrollment-courses>.

This section of CSCI E-83 has an intensive -- and mandatory -- on-campus weekend. To receive credit for the class, you must be in attendance for the entirety of the on-campus weekend. Refer to the course website or syllabus for course details.
